Inflicted—Four Men Struck, and One Mortally Wounded—The Shooter Arrested.

At one o'clock on Sunday morning, just after our paper had been put to press, and most of our people had retired, a shooting scrape occarred on Meadow Valley street, in front of John H. Lynch's chop-house. Lynch was the party most seriously injured, it being almost certain at present writing that he cannot recover. The unfortunate man is a native of Ireland, about 36 years of age, and formerly lived at Portland, Oregon, at Downieville, California, and at San Franciso, where his wife now lives. Schoonmaker made some reply, which drew an offensive remark from O'Neil, and Schoonmaker struck him. The parties clinched and then Harrington, who seems not to had have anything to do with the first difficulty, opened fire with a six-shooter. It is difficult to say with precission just how three shots could have caused so much mischief, but that there were only three shots we have the evidence of our own senses and have the evidence of our own senses and the testimony of officer Woodruff and many others who heard them, and that five wounds were inflicted the bodies of the men attest. It is most likely, however, that one shot passed through Sullivan's left wrist into Lynch's right Sullivan's left wrist into Lynch's right shoulder, another struck Schoonmaker in the side, and without entering the cavity passed around and struck O'Neil in the hip. (This apparently strange result may be explained by the fact that Schoonmaker was probably stooping, and so brought the upper portion of his body in range with O'Neil's hip.) Still another (and probably the last) shot entered the brain of John H. Lynch, inflicting a wound from the effects of inflicting a wound from the effects of which Dr. Bergstein, who was called, could not hope for his recovery.

THE WOUNDS INFLICTED. The most disastrous is the one upon John H. Lynch. The ball struck on the top of the head, just above the right eye, and entered the brain. The skull was broken and the bullet split by the concussion. Dr. Bergstein and other medical gentlemen made an examination of this wound yesterday, and at the close could give no hopes of a recovery. THE POPULAR PRELING. When on Sunday moning the news was heard, a profound sensation was created. People began to wonder if there was ever to be an end to the reckless use of firearms in the streets of the town. The propriety of taking steps outside the forms of law for the preservation of order and the protection of the lives and property of the people was freely discussed. There was no concerted action pointing to an uprising, but the sentiment it favor of the people taking some steps for their own protection was very general.

The man by whose hands the shooting was done is regarded as a dangerous fel-low, and has killed three men before He is a small, spare-made man, below the medium height, but is high-tempered, and is ever ready to use weapons on any plausible pretext. He is now in jail awaiting the issue of Lynch's wounds before a preliminary examination can be had, and as the Grand Jury will get to work in a few days, it is probable that his case will not be inquired into by the ETC., ETC.

On Sunday a dispatch was sent to Mrs. Lynch, at San Francisco, aunouncing t misfortune that had befallen her hu band. Yesterday she telegraphed know if it would be best for her to con

During all day Sunday and yesterday the condition of Mr. Lynch was the subject of continual inquiry by his friends and others.

REWALD FOR A PORGER.-Postmuster Abraham sends us a postal card offering a reward for the arrest of a forger: One thousand dollars reward will be paid for the arrest, and detention for a requisition, of J. H. Horton, who, on may 27th, 1873, passed upon Reed, McGrann & Co., bankers of Lancaster, Pa., a forged certificate of stock on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, purport-ing to represent a value of $10,000. The amount realized by Horton from this and to the following explanation from Capt. Hanly in regard to the misapprehension concerning his motives in taking down the National Flag while the procession was moving through town on the Fourth of July. The facts of the case simply these: Just before the processon started it was found that there was no flag for the Car of State, and Captain Hanly was solicited to loan them his; though fearful, as he stated at the time, that his motives in taking it down at such a moment might be misdown at such a moment might be mis-construed, he yielded; and his flag was the only one that adorned the Car on that day. The moment the procession was over the flag was again hoisted to its former position. We trust this explanaformer position. We trust this explana-tion will suffice to silence all who have been disposed to cavil about the matter.

Holt, on White River, White Pine county, 2,000 pounds of cheese, of which a large 2,000 pounds of cheese, of which a large sample was left at our office yesterday, together with an ampie supply of liquors. The cheese is not surpassed by any we have ever tasted, and we have the evidence of old cheese makers that the article made in the White River country, owing to the superior quality of the grass in that section, is superior to much of the Eastern-made article. Cheese-making in the apparently arid wastes of Nevada is a success, judging from the sample before success, judging from the sample before

I HAVE BEEN SOLE TRADER FOR FOUR years; have done a good deal of business for many years; have done a good deal of business for many years; have kept my private, separate property for many years before I married Mr. Doscher; have done business with all the best bankers and merchants on the Facific coast, and never owed a two-bit piece during that time. I was sued a year sgo for a bill of goods during my absence from Pioche, that was ordered and shipped m Mr. Doscher's name. A Cornishman named Joe Opie bought Mr. Doscher out before he went to Arizona. Opie leased the lower part of my house, in which he opened as aloon. Three weeks after Mr. Doscher lett for Arizona, the il-quors ordered by him arrived. Under false pretense Joe Opie took possession of the liquor, and disposed of them in various ways. I was sued for the above liquors, ordered without my knowledges, and 5000—rents—due me, attached and held for one year by Jesin Kane, then Sheriff of this county; and at the present time no account can be given of the money, and all the satisfaction that I can get, is, that Kane paid it quit for bugsy hire to Wes. Travis, the present Sheriff.

I shall leave for San Francisco in a few days, about the face, heetic flushes, furred tongue, feetid breath, coughs, consumption night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, you should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treat-ing disease, which heve fails of effecting a quick and radical cure.
